Alpine skiing, snowboarding, snowshoeing and epic views of Mount Rainier await.

Did we mention comfortable lodging, dining and live entertainment too?

The largest ski area in Washington State, Crystal Mountain Resort is located on the northeast corner of Mount Rainier National Park. Less than two hours from Seattle the resort is open November thru April for winter recreation.

Crystal Mountain Resort has the most vertical, highest elevation and the only 8-passenger gondola in all of Washington State.

If you don't know how to ski or snowboard, private and group lessons are available, but you don't have to ski or snowboard to enjoy Crystal Mountain. There are also snowshoe tours, scenic gondola rides, live music and nightlife.

Enjoy a Mountain Music Series every Saturday from 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM for Après music on the Sundeck under the new large heated patio umbrella! The Clif Bar Music on the Mountain Series, presented by Clif Bar, is back for another fun winter! Featuring live music from special guests. And don't forget, there's also live music at the Snorting Elk; Fridays and Saturdays starting at 9:00 PM.

Want to get a really great view of Mount Rainier? Scenic 8-passenger Mt. Rainier Gondola rides will take you to new heights with one of the best views available of the mountain. Watch from above as skiers and snowboarders fly down the mountain below you. Pass by tall Evergreen trees and get a bird's eye view of the surrounding mountain peaks covered in snow.

You'll travel almost 2,500 vertical feet to the summit where you will find breathtaking views of not only Mount Rainier, but the Cascade Range as well. You'll also be just a few short steps away from the Summit House, Washington's highest elevation restaurant.

Foot-passengers (non-skiers) are welcome to ride the gondola anytime during the winter.

Pro Tips:

- Be prepared for winter driving conditions. Take it slow on ice and snow. Allow extra room between vehicles and avoid abrupt actions while steering, braking or accelerating.
- Clear snow and ice off your vehicle – including lights and roof – before driving. Keep your car stocked with basic winter safety equipment such as a scraper, shovel, chains and jumper cables.
- Fill'er up before leaving home – Gas is not available at Crystal Mountain.
- Remember to check the current conditions before planning your gondola ride on our Weather & Conditions page. Weather can change quickly and the gondola can close early or without notice when it's windy or stormy.

The 52nd annual Enumclaw Christmas Parade will commence on December 2, 2017, at 6:00 PM. When it comes to building a dynamic holiday float the bar is set high. This is a one-of-a-kind small-town parade you won't want to miss.

See Santa, lighted displays, bands and more. Make a weekend of it. Come early. Check into your hotel and then visit the locally owned and operated shops. Book a relaxing treatment at the Enumclaw Day Spa. Then head to Cole Street at 5:00 PM. Go early so you can get a good table at one of the restaurants along Cole Street to watch the parade go by during dinner. Restaurants like: Kelly's Mercantile, Jackson's Pizza, The Historic Mint, and The Rainier Bar and Grill are the place to be to watch the parade while enjoying a delicious meal. The Local is a coffee shop with light snacks and comfy sofas that is also a popular choice. If you choose to watch the parade outside under the lights be sure to dress for the weather so you're comfortable along the sidelines.

The Parade is scheduled from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM on Saturday, December 2, 2017. For more information contact the Enumclaw Chamber of Commerce 360.825.7666

Lodging in Enumclaw

Stay in Enumclaw.

The lodging properties in Enumclaw make an affordable basecamp that's within walking distance of restaurants, a day spa, and locally owned shops. Outdoor recreation opportunities abound with skiing, snowboarding, snowshoeing, and scenic gondola rides at Crystal Mountain Resort. Crystal Mountain Resort is located 45 minutes from Enumclaw.

Winter in Paradise

Feel like a kid again this season.

The Nisqually entrance to Mount Rainier National Park is the only year-round entry point to the park. Once through the gates visitors can stop at Longmire for snowshoeing and winter hiking.

The Longmire area has a relatively low elevation point at 2,760 feet and is one of the few areas of the park easily accessible year-round. This is a good spot to visit when conditions up at Paradise are not conducive to entry. During mild winters, the trails may be completely snow-free. But during winters of heavy snowfall, three to five feet of snow may cover the ground. Driving up from Longmire towards Paradise visitors will be treated to stunning wintry scenery.

The snowplay area is located north of the upper parking lot at Paradise. The snowplay area opens mid-December and closes late March, depending on seasonal conditions.

Had your fill of sledding? Sign up at the Henry M. Jackson Visitors Center for a two-hour, ranger-guided snowshoe hike. Moderately strenuous, this hike is great for everyone including beginners.

The walks cover approximately 1.8 miles in two hours. This is a good opportunity for beginners to try the sport.

Visit page 19 for more information about snowshoeing.

Read: Blogger Julie Johnson's experience on a Ranger-Led Snowshoe Tour at Paradise.

Pro Tips:

- “Soft” sliding devices such as flexible sleds, inner tubes, and saucers are allowed. No hard toboggans or runner sleds.
- For your safety, never walk, ski, or snowshoe on the road to Paradise, even when the road is closed to vehicle traffic. Snowplows and other equipment can operate beyond the gate.
- Ask a ranger about current trail conditions before snowshoeing or back-country skiing at the park.
- Cross-country skis and snowshoes are available for rent at the Longmire General Store from approximately mid-December to early April. For details, inquire in-person at the General Store, or call (360) 569-2411.
- All vehicles entering Mount Rainier National Park are required to carry properly fitting tire chains (this includes 4-wheel-drive and all-wheel-drive vehicles). Make sure you can install your chains properly and safely. Snow tires or tire chains may be required while driving in the park. Signs posted along the roadway indicate traction device requirements.
- The road from Longmire to Paradise closes nightly for safety reasons and to facilitate plowing. Visitors must leave Paradise by 4:30 pm to clear the Longmire gate by its 5:00 pm closure. The uphill gate at Longmire closes at 4:00 pm. It reopens the next morning if road conditions allow safe travel, usually between 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. However, some days the weather and snow conditions prevent the road from opening at all. Keep in mind that all roads are subject to closure at any time.

- Reservations strongly suggested.

Bundle up and head for the hills!

Explore a wintry wonderland on a guided trail ride.

If you've visited Paradise at Mount Rainier National Park you drove right by the humble stables of EZ Times Outfitters. Elbe, Washington was once a booming logging town, and it is now the home of the Mt. Rainier Railroad and EZ Times Outfitters. This small town (population 29) is where your horseback riding adventure begins.

A former rock quarry, the grounds near the stables have been transformed since 1989 when guides and volunteers first started to welcome visitors and blazing trails through the forest and foothills south of Mount Rainier. Now visitors have access to gentle horses, ready for riders of all levels. Also on the grounds near the stables is a firepit and picnic tables for visitors to enjoy.

Trail rides are led by experienced guides, familiar with the horses and the landscape. Visitors can book a one-hour, two-hour or three-hour trail ride. See Alder trees, and journey former logging trails. Wander down into the valley, past a small stream, and then wind up and around the trees on your way back to the stables.

Ready for a warm beverage or something to eat afterward? DeWitt's Elbe Junction is a charming general store within walking distance of the stables that offers coffee, lattes, and snacks. Check out our dining section on page 5 for restaurants near the stables.
